Hondo, un ragazzino di dodici anni, ha perduto i cammelli che custodiva. Deve ritrovarli, e con loro la possibilità di sposare Yasmine, la figlia del proprietario degli animali. Il destino gli si accanisce contro, in un turbinio di avventure e vicissitudini fra trafficanti di organi, polizia, guerriglieri, spacciatori che allontanano sempre più la possibilità di recuperare i cammelli. Un romanzo tragico e picaresco, incalzante e incisivo che passa in rassegna tutta l'Africa nera, dalla Mauritania alla Costa d'Avorio, dalla Sierra Leone al Ruanda. Ovunque guerra e violenza, sopraffazione e miseria, un destino segnato per i ragazzi africani, bambini invecchiati prima di vivere.
